- 1) What is your philosophy of life? Happiness is everything...you can not write a check for it! Spend your time doing things you are really passionate about.
- 2) What is your favorite restaurant/thing to do/attraction in Richmond?
Thai Dinner in Westland Shopping Plaza
Playing golf and visiting VA Vineyards
- 3) Describe your profession/business and why you chose this career path? I plan special event fundraisers and events that our Bigs and Littles can enjoy together. I also do misc. administrative tasks and manage volunteers. I chose this career path because I want to go to work everyday and know that I am making a difference in someone's life!
- 4) How do you see your business/profession enhancing NEW members?
I hope I give the members of NEW a better understanding of what we do at Big Brothers Big Sisters Services and enlighten them about the various volunteer opportunities that are available
- 5) Do you have any events coming up that you would like for NEW members to know about? Our 16th Annual Duck Race will be on Saturday, July 30, 2005
- 6) Give us 2 success tips for life and/or business.
Remember the 5 P's....Prior Planning Prevents Poor Performance!
Learn to let go of the things that you have no control over!

Thank you, Nancy

SPECIAL THANKS

Thank you to my many N.E.W. friends for your continuous support following my Dad's stroke and for the thoughtful ways in which you shared my family's loss with me. Your encouraging cards, letters, e-mails and phone calls have been a tremendous source of comfort to me. Thanks for taking the time to care!

Fondly,
Susie Hayman
